Dr Samantha Battams

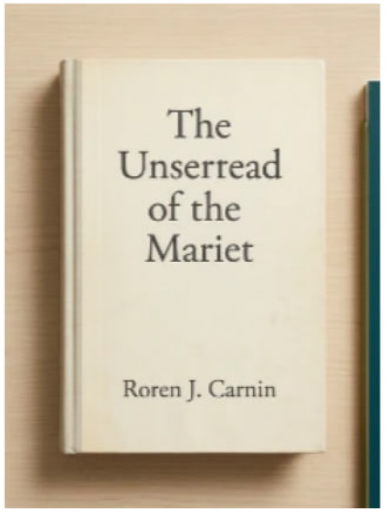

Connecting research, storytelling, and creativity from Adelaide to the world.

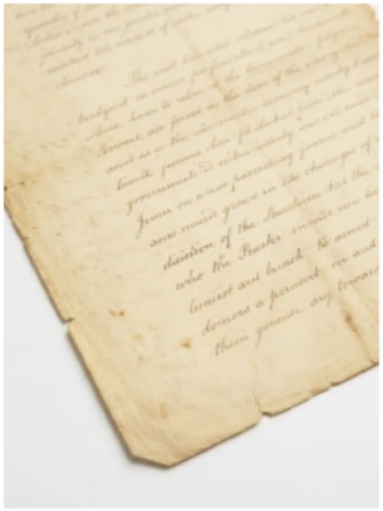

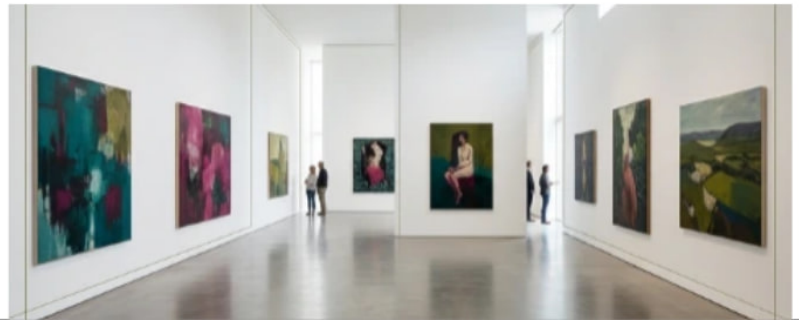

EXPLORE

One Website, Many Ways to Discover

- Published books and historical short stories
- Public speaking and workshop engagements
- Research and evaluation consulting
- Original art gallery and latest news

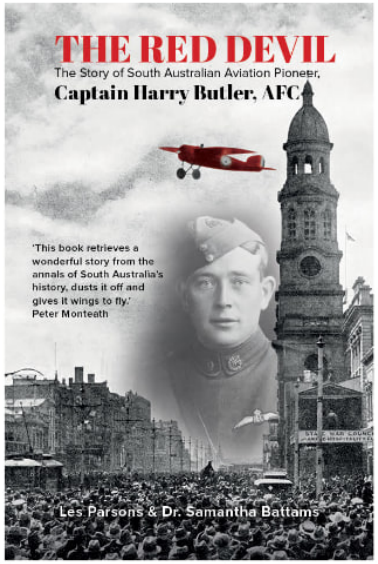

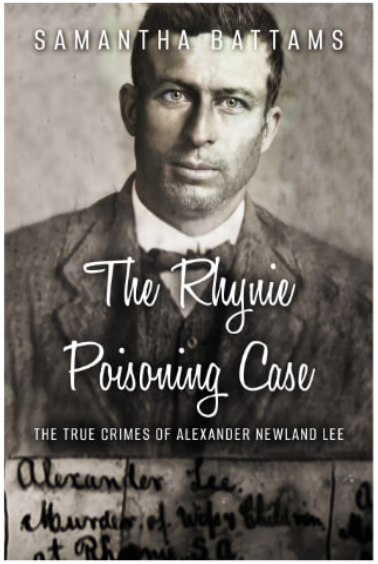

LITERARY WORK

Books That Bring Overlooked History Into Focus

Samantha's literary work uncovers the hidden narratives of South Australian history through meticulous research.

RESEARCH FOCUS

Paving the Way

A personal search through adoption and DNA opens broader stories of migration and identity.

- Ancestry and pioneer community insights
- The intersection of family and social history

Available now for digital download

Historical Stories, Ready to Explore

Nine downloadable stories uncovering the pioneers and community builders of South Australia.

ENGAGEMENT

Talks and Workshops

From library talks to international conferences, Samantha opens conversations on genealogy, historical research, and public health. Her engagements bridge the gap between academic rigor and community interest.

CONSULTING SERVICES

Research and Evaluation

Domain	Core Services
Policy & Governance	Strategic planning and evidence reviews
Program Impact	Qualitative research and evaluation
Public Health	Global health and social policy analysis

CREATIVE PRACTICE

A Creative Practice

Drawing and acrylic painting extend her creative work beyond the written word, offering a visual dimension to her storytelling.

"Research depth, accessible storytelling, and bringing an understanding of psychological, social, cultural and historical influences unite my practice."

— DR SAMANTHA BATTAMS

NEXT STEPS

Read, Connect and Collaborate

- Visit samanthabattams.com to explore more
- Subscribe for news and story updates
- Enquire about talks, art, or research consulting